THE ARTICLE

From http://www.BreakingNewsEnglish.com/world_cup_news_2010/paraguay_japan.html

Neither of these teams had ever been to the World Cup quarter-finals. Their nerves showed in this very scrappy game. There were few chances for either side as they seemed to want to defend more than attack. Perhaps the Japanese had the best of the near misses and played with a little more teamwork. The closest either team came to finding the back of the net was a powerful shot from Japan's Mitsui which curled over the goalkeeper but hit the crossbar. Extra time came and there was still no change in the tactics. Penalties loomed and penalties came. Paraguay went first and Barreto confidently put the ball away. Japan's Endo replied to level. Lucas Barrios and Hasebe put their kicks away. Riveros put Paraguay 3-2 up and then Komano misses for Japan. Advantage Paraguay. Valdez and Honda score their next penalties to leave it to Oscar Cardozo to put Paraguay through.
